Stellenbosch

Arrive in Cape Town International Airport where you will be met by your guide and escorted to your accommodation in Stellenbosch.

A comfortable minibus will escort you to your accommodation which will be our base for the first week. This minibus will also be your transport for the duration of the safari ferrying you from your base to the daily activities and back.

Accommodation is in an AirBnb in Stellenbosch for 7 nights. This will be your base from where daily activities will happen. No need to pack up every day. You will enjoy your own room with bathroom and share the lounge, kitchen and other communal areas with your fellow travellers.

Dinner is at The Fat Butcher restaurant in Stellenbosch. This is an opportunity to meet and greet your fellow travellers and enjoy a welcome drink whilst your guide fills you in on more detail of the safari. At the Fat Butcher, the food is unique, the restaurant ambiance is warm and inviting, and your experience eating at the Fat Butcher will surely be memorable.

Drinks are not included in your safari unless specifically nominated on the itinerary. A great variety of drinks are available at all venues should you wish to purchase any. The wineglass icon denotes wine is included in the meal.

STELLENBOSCH

Breakfast is enjoyed at our base.

Lunch at Dusk in Stellenbosch. The cosy restaurant offers a fantastic excuse to spend the day in Stellenbosch. Their eclectic lunch menu paired with some local wines are not to be missed

Dinner is back at our base where a light dinner is prepared and served by your hosts.

South Africa's second-oldest town is justifiably famous for its wine, with a wealth of farms worth visiting. However, there's so much more to the City of Oaks. Rich in history and culture, and surrounded by majestic mountains and nature reserves, it offers other must-try experiences whatever your interests or age.

"The bon vivants will feel like they're in gourmand heaven", with a smorgasbord of eating, drinking and living it up to be done. Nature adventurers will be stoked with the network of mountain and vineyard trails waiting to be explored. Art and design lovers will find plenty of locally inspired and cultural pursuits, while history buffs can time-travel in style.

Stellenbosch is also a vibrant university town with a long and rich history, but Stellenbosch is mostly known for its exquisite world-class wine estates, historic Cape Dutch architecture nestled against dramatic mountain backdrops.

Somerset West

Breakfast is enjoyed at our base.

Lunch today is a picnic at Vergelegen.

Dinner at Bloom, Erinvale Estate

We travel towards the town of Somerset West where we visit one of the oldest wineries in Africa. At Vergelegen, we tour the cellar before snacking on a delicious picnic lunch in the estate's gardens.

After lunch we explore the beautiful gardens and typical Cape Dutch architecture of Vergelegen before we head to Lourensford Estate for a visit to this magnificent winery. At Lourensford, you are free to wander around the gardens with its sculptures and enjoy the beautiful mountain scenery that borders this estate.

We take the short drive to Erinvale where we dine at Bloom. Bloom where refined dining comes alive in a space that delights all the senses. Designed for both the “aesthetes and epicureans”, Bloom combines sophistication with genuine warmth, offering an experience that is elegant yet unpretentious.

Stellenbosch Wineries

Breakfast is enjoyed at our base.

Lunch at Ernie Els.

Dinner back at our base.

After breakfast we head out to Waterford Wine Estate for a coffee and short walk around the estate. We then set out to visit a couple more Wine Estates before heading to the famous Ernie Els Estate. Here you can visit a small golf museum dedicated to the Big Easy (EE) and even chip a ball or two from the small tee onto a green! This estate is truly amazing and very much worth the visit.

We enjoy lunch here with modern farmhouse cuisine at its finest in a charming open-plan space that extends out onto a terrace with picturesque views of Stellenbosch and the Helderberg mountains. Farmstyle decor echoes the hearty cuisine made from fresh, locally-sourced ingredients.

This 5-course culinary experience will take a minimum 2.5hrs and is curated for the whole group with a wine pairing.

We finish the day off with a drive through the valley before heading back to base for a light dinner.

Stellenbosch gardens and wineries

Breakfast is enjoyed at our base.

Lunch at Tokara Wine Estate.

Dinner back at our base.

After breakfast visit the famous Dylan Lewis Sculpture Garden. The Dylan Lewis Sculpture Garden is a place of expansive vistas, scents and the sounds of nature, with tranquil groves, hidden paths and lush indigenous vegetation. The project began serendipitously in 2009 when Lewis hired an excavator on a whim and began shaping the contours of what would become the seven-hectare sculpture garden. Today, the artist continues to explore themes integral to his work in this serene landscape on the slopes of the Stellenbosch Mountain looking out over vineyards towards the ocean.

Lunch is at the spectacular Tokara Wine Estate close to Simonsberg Mountain where you can wander between the vines and olive groves. To close out the day we visit the famous Delaire Graff Wine Estate for a wine tasting before rounding the day out back at our base with a light dinner.

FRIDAY

28 MAY 2027

Babylonstoren and Franschhoek

Breakfast is enjoyed at our base.

Lunch at the Greenhouse.

Dinner back at The Post and Pepper.

Today is a big day as we visit the world famous Babylonstoren Estate. Here you are free to explore the gardens and delicatessens on this vibrant estate. We also engage in a wine tasting before gathering at the Greenhouse for lunch.

After lunch we head for the nearby historic town of Franschhoek where you are free to explore the town and its surroundings. The town offers an eclectic mix of galleries, boutiques and bespoke shops for you to explore.

Tonight we dine at The Post and Pepper in Stellenbosch for a chef's taste menu with a wine pairing. At the heart of Post & Pepper is the belief that fine dining should feel welcoming. Here, meticulous technique, quality ingredients and attentive service are celebrated, but never at the expense of comfort. It is a place where guests can relax, laugh, share plates, discover remarkable wines and simply enjoy being together.

Table Mountain and Kirstenbosch

Breakfast is enjoyed at our base.

Lunch at Kirstenbosch.

Dinner at Utopia.

Today we take the cable car up Table Mountain (weather permitting) and enjoy the magnificent views from the top of this natural wonder (one of the 7 wonders of the world) which rises 1,067m above seal level.

After descending from Table Mountain we head to Kirstenbosch Botanical Gardens for a picnic lunch in the magnificent gardens.

Situated on the eastern slopes of Table Mountain, Kirstenbosch is internationally acclaimed as one of the seven most magnificent botanical gardens in the world. The developed garden displays collections of southern African plants including many rare and endangered species unique to this floral kingdom.

We conclude the day with a dinner at Utopia, one of Cape Town's finest dining experiences. Utopia offers an incredible setting with breathtaking views paired with Mediterranean-influenced cuisine.

1 JUNE 2027

Hout Bay, Cape Point and Boulders

Breakfast is enjoyed at our base.

Lunch en-route to Cape Point.

Dinner at our lodging.

We set out for a spectacular day of driving down to Cape Point. Along the way we stop in Hout Bay for a coffee before we drive the famous Chapmans Peak Drive towards the Cape of Good Hope (Cape Point).

We enjoy fish and chips lunch along the way and head to the point for a view of where the two oceans (Indian and Atlantic) meet. This is a very scenic area so have your cameras at the ready! The Cape of Good Hope, also known as the Cape of Storms, is a rugged and windswept promontory where history and legend join hands to surface together in the raging waters of the Atlantic Ocean where it mix with the Indian Ocean currents.

We take the short hike to the lighthouse for some unforgettable views.

We return late afternoon to our base and enjoy a hearty home cooked meal.

WEDNESDAY

2 JUNE MAY 2027

Bo-Kaap excursion

Breakfast is enjoyed at our base.

Lunch at Bo-Kaap.

Dinner at Fyn.

We visit the Bo-Kaap today with a walking tour in this famous area. The Bo-Kaap is one of Cape Town's most distinct neighbourhoods known for its vibrant, predominantly Muslim, Cape Malay community and its equally bold flat-roofed colourful houses and cobbled stone roads.

We also visit Greenmarket Square and Company's Gardens before we head to our restaurant for the evening.

We dine at Fyn, A restaurant on the edge; "driven by passion, tempered by precision. FYN is, without question, one of the finest restaurants in Cape Town and easily among the best dining experiences anywhere in the world. The cuisine is deeply inspired by Japanese flavors and techniques, while still rooted in South African ingredients and creativity. Every dish is beautifully balanced, visually striking, and full of precision".

FRIDAY

4 JUNE 2027

V&A Waterfront

Breakfast is enjoyed at our base.

Lunch at V&A Waterfront.

Dinner at Seebamboes.

Today is spent at the V&A Waterfront. A working harbour with a twist. Restaurants, galleries, markets, vistas and a hive of activity is all on display within the compact V&A Waterfront area. The V&A Waterfront is one of Africa's most visited destinations with more than 24 million visitors annually. Situated in the oldest working harbour in South Africa, with the iconic Table Mountain as its backdrop, makes the V&A Waterfront is a favourite for local and international visitors.

Tonight we dine at Seebamboes named after the kelp native to the Great African Seaforest. "Seebamboes is a creative exploration of sea and land where they deconstruct the traditional surf and turf and elevate every element. The setting is intimate and sophisticated, seating just 16 diners". At Seebamboes, they do things a little differently. There's no set menu, Instead, they serve a surprise tasting experience, letting the ingredients and seasons guide what's on your plate which combines flavours from the sea and land in creative ways.
